39th Reunion Held

By Herrold Family

Thirty-ninth annual Herrold reunion was held Saturday at Rolling Green Park. Several hundred members attended the outing during the day, including many from a distance.

The program opened with devotions by Rev. Benjamin Herrold, of Spring Mills. Dewey Herrold, of Selinsgrove, president, delivered a brief opening address. Betsy Herrold, of Selinsgrove, sang a solo after which a chalk drawing entitled, "Beyond The Sunset," was made by Dorothy Shaffer, of Island Park.

Rev. Raymond L. Morris, pastor of First Methodist Church, Selinsgrove, the guest speaker, delivered an inspiring address on the topic, "The Value of Family Reunions." Dr. Charles Fisher, of Selinsgrove, presented a brief report on the history of the Herrold clan. A monument will be erected in Berks county in honor of some of the early settlers of the family.

During the business session, it was decided that "get-well" cards would be mailed to each member who becomes bedfast with illness.

Officers were re-elected as follows: Dewey Herrold, Selinsgrove, president; John C. Herrold, Port Trevorton, vice president; Mrs. Dora Schlegel, of Sunbury, secretary; Ada Reichenbach, of Port Trevorton, assistant secretary, and George W. Herrold, of Port Trevorton, treasurer. It was decided to hold the reunion next year at the same location the last Saturday in July.
