

1956

The 44th Annual Reunion of the Herold Family was held at Rolling Green Park on Saturday July 28, 1956. Rev. Ben Herold, Altoona conducted the business meeting at 2 P.M. in the absence of the President Newey Herold. He opened devotions with reading from the book of Psalms and prayer.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was read and accepted having a balance of $147.73.

Rev. Herold gave a talk on reunion organizations and their social and educational value to members of a family clan.

A report from George W. Herold, acting as a substitute for Dr. Elwood Flanders of York, the historian gave a resume of the research which Dr. Flanders has conducted the past year with regard to 3 stone houses in the Port Devorton area, one dating back to 1816 that was originally the property of Herold ancestors.

Recognition was given to Mr. & Mrs. Charles Herold of Port Devorton, who observed their 50th wedding anniversary in April. The head of each family made introductions for his group.

It was moved by Ned C. Herold and properly seconded that we retain old officers who are Newey Herold president, John C. Herold vice president, George W. Herold, treasurer, Mrs. Nora Schladt secretary and Mrs. Ada Reichenbach assistant secretary.

Herrold Reunion

Forty-fourth annual reunion of the Herrold families, descendants of the late Simon S. Herrold and the late Frederick Herrold, was held at Rolling Green Park on Saturday, with more than 200 present, Sunbury and Port Trevorton being most largely represented.

Rev. Ben Herrold, Altoona, conducted the reunion meeting in the afternoon, in the absence of the president, Dewey Herrold, and opened devotions with a prayer. He gave a talk on reunion organizations and their social and educational value to members of a family clan.

A report from George W. Herrold, Trevorton, acting as substitute for Dr. Elwood Flanders, of York, the historian, gave a resume of the research which Dr. Flanders has conducted during the past year with regard to three stone houses in the Port Trevorton area; one dating back to 1816, that were originally the property of Herrold ancestors. Information was given concerning successive bequests to Herrold families through wills and grants, as gleaned from a perusal of deeds in the court house. A cemetery at Chapman, which contains the bodies of Revolutionary War veterans is named for the Herrold family and schoolhouses in the Chapman area also bear the family name.

A book on the family tree is being planned with the use of material gathered by historians at the reunion organization through the years.

Recognition was given to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herrold of Port Trevorton, who observed their 50th wedding anniversary in April.

The head of each family made introductions for his group at the 2:30 p. m. gathering after the picnic dinner. A prize was given to the oldest person present, Austin Shaffer, of Sunbury; to the youngest person, Susan Herrold, daughter of Glen and Regina Herrold of Baltimore, Md.; to the parents of the largest family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Herrold, Sunbury, represented by 22, including children and grandchildren; to the ones coming the farthest distance: June Musselman, of Staten Island, N. Y., and the Ralph Black family of Geneva, N. Y.

A large number gathered at the table for the supper hour. Treats were passed out to all the children present during the game period in the afternoon.

The same officers will serve the reunion organization next year. They are Dewey Herrold, Selinsgrove, president; John C. Herrold, Port Trevorton, vice president; George W. Herrold, Port Trevorton, treasurer; Mrs. A. C. Schlager, Sunbury, secretary.
