

Herrold Reunion Attracts 100 Folk

Herrold Reunion was held at Rolling Green Park Saturday, celebrating the 46th year that the family organization has held a picnic program. The business meeting opened in the early afternoon with Dewey Herrold, Selinsgrove, presiding. Among the parts given was that of the Port Trevorton cemetery committee which is headed by George Herrold, Port Trevorton. It was announced that the cemetery being kept in good condition.

Miss Grace Herrold gave the report of the data being kept on the Herrold family, in which all officers are assisting.

In the award of prizes, one for the youngest person went to Douglas LaVerne Moyer, seven week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moyer, Sunbury. Oldest was Joseph Brubaker, 84, of Port Trevorton. Person coming the farthest distance was Janet, Port Brooklyn, N. Y., and the next farthest point, Mrs. Arlen Leach, Easton. Largest family presented was that of Mrs. M. W. Herrold, Port Trevorton with 14 members, and Mrs. M. W. Herrold, Sunbury, tying for the prize with the same number of people.

Three carloads of Herrold descendants were present from Reading, among the approximately 100 persons attending from Port Trevorton, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Scranton, Easton, Pottsville, Freeburg, Port Trevorton, Pleasant Mills, Liverport, and Sunbury and surrounding localities, including Selinsgrove and Shamokin Dam.

All present officers were re-elected for another year. They are: Dewey Herrold, Selinsgrove, president; John C. Herrold, Port Trevorton, vice president; George W. Herrold, Port Trevorton, treasurer; Mrs. A. C. Schlagel, Sunbury, secretary, and Mrs. Ada Reichenbach, Port Trevorton, assistant secretary.

There were 100 people present.

The Annual Herrold Reunion of 1958 was opened with the singing of the song "America" followed by prayer by Rev. Ben Herrold. The reading of the minutes by the secretary was approved as read. The treasurer reported a balance of $179.25 giving a full report. A motion to pay the bills was made by Rev. Ben Herrold and properly seconded and approved.

A report of the cemetery committee was given by chairman George W. Herrold. He announced that it was cleaned by Fred Herrold and Wilbur Brubaker and is nicely kept by this committee.

Mrs. Ned Herrold was reported to be ill but improving nicely.

We were saddened at the passing of Mrs. Irma Herrold wife of Paul Herrold whose services were held to-day. It also took down our attendance to-day.

In the award for prizes, one for youngest person went to Douglas LaVerne Moyer, 7 week old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moyer, 638 Susquehanna Ave, Sunbury

The oldest person was Joe Brubaker 87 of Port Trevorton, Pa.

Person coming the farthest was Jeanette Reif, 496 E 45th, Brooklyn, N. Y. The next farthest was Arlene Leach of Easton, Pa.

The largest family was tied by Gille Mitterling and Mrs. Fred Herold with 14 members of their families present.

The meeting was turned over to Rev.
Ben Herold for the election of officers.

It was moved by Marvin Herold that we retain all old officers & properly seconded.
They are Berney Herold, President, John C.
Herold, vice pres., George W. Herold, treasurer, Rosa Schlagel, sec. and Mrs. Ada Reichenbach, asst. sec.

Candy was given to all present and gifts
for the children.

Those who passed away during the year were Mary Foltz, Edna Herold Spickler, Tom Strauser, Charlotte Leach Brennan, Mrs. Ned
Herold and Milton Herold.