Herold Family Gathers At Park

Fifty-third annual Herold reunion was held Sunday at Rolling Green Park. Approximately 125 persons attended the event which featured election of officers and the appointment of a committee to prepare a history of the family for the reunion annals.

Dewey Herold, Selinsgrove, was reelected president; John C. Herold, Port Trevorton, vice president; George W. Herold, Port Trevorton, treasurer; Mrs. Dora Schlagel, Sunbury, secretary, and Mrs. Ada Reichenbach, Port Trevorton, assistant secretary.

Dr. Elwood Flanders of York was appointed historian. He will be assisted by the reunion officers and several other members of the Herold clan in preparing a historical booklet in readiness for next year's reunion.

Dinner and supper were enjoyed picnic-style. A devotional period was in charge of Rev. Ben Herold of Saxton. Group singing was led by Paul Herold of Selinsgrove. Howard Herold, Shamokin, gave a few impromptu remarks concerning his early days in Snyder County.

Prizes were awarded to persons in various categories. They went to the oldest person, Charles Herold, Millersburg; the oldest woman, Mrs. Charles Herold, Port Trevorton; youngest person, five months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Shaffer, Klingers-town; largest family present, that of Charles Herold, Port Trevorton, with 30 representing his family, and second largest, that of Rev. Ben Herold of Saxton, who was accompanied by 18 family members.

Two families attending the reunion for the first time also received prizes. They were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Shaffer and family, Klingers-town, and Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, Liverpool.

Persons were present from Philadelphia, Baltimore, Harrisburg, Campbells-town, Millersburg, Liverpool, Port Trevorton, Herndon, Richfield, Mt. Wolf, Milesburg, Renovo, Saxton, Newberry, Shamokin, Hummel's Wharf, Shamokin Dam, Selinsgrove and Sunbury.

It was voted to hold the 1965 reunion the last Sunday in July.
